Figure 1 Timing of survey recording periods (months); d = drug use indicator, u = unemployment indicator
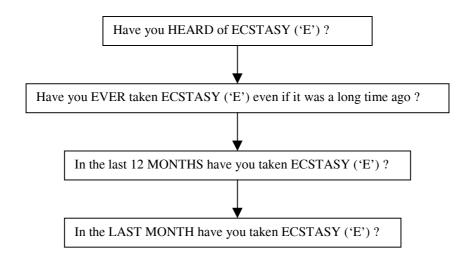

Figure 2 The current BCS questionnaire structure

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│     Have you HEARD of ECSTASY ('E') ?        │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────┘
                       │
                       ▼
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│ Have you EVER taken ECSTASY ('E') even if it was a long time ago ? │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
                       │
                       ▼
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│ What age were you when you FIRST took ECSTASY ('E')  ?   │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
                       │
                       ▼
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│ What age were you the LAST time you took ECSTASY ('E') ? │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```
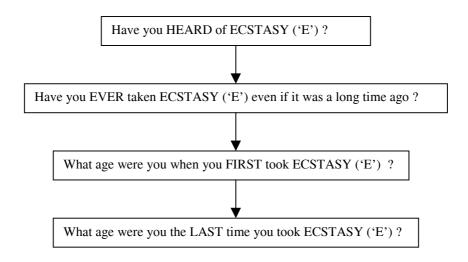

Figure 3 A simple re-design of the BCS questionnaire structure
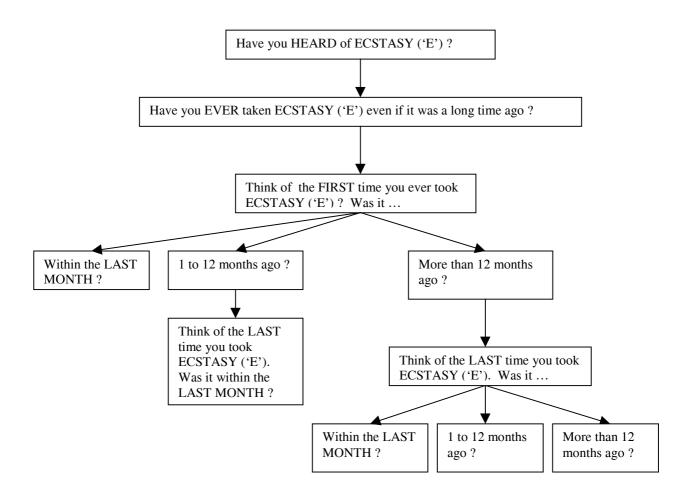

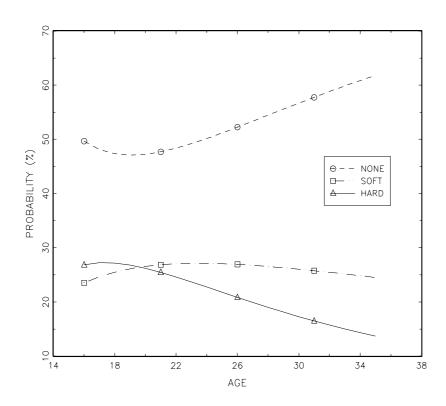

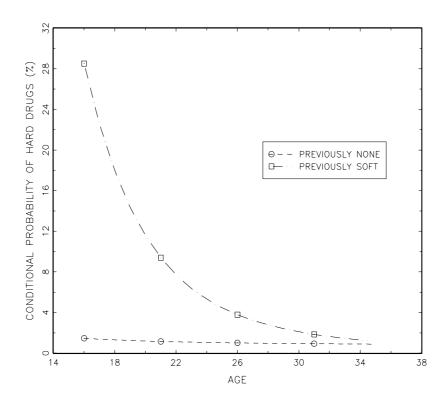

Figure 4 A re-designed drug questionnaire for computer-based self-completion

Figure 5 Estimated probabilities of categories of drug use (highest level of use in any period)

Figure 6 The estimated effect of previous soft drug use on the probability of hard drug use in the current year