

Harold Fox, a life in landscape and local history, 1945-2007

Saturday 19 July 2008
Education Library Hall, School of Education,
University Road, Leicester

- 10.45 registration and coffee
11.30 Welcome from Pam Fisher
11.35 Tribute from the Vice Chancellor
11.45 Bruce Campbell
Harold Fox as an historical geographer
12.05 Charles Phythian-Adams
Harold Fox at Leicester
12.25 Andrew Jackson
A student's view
12.45 Sam Turner
A Devon perspective
13.05 Lunch (at 1 Salisbury Road)
14.10 Chris Dyer
Harold's contribution to the subject

A celebration of landscape and local history by some of Harold Fox's former PhD students

- 14.30 Chris Thornton
'Demographic trends at medieval Taunton'
Mike Thompson
'Building a barn in Street in 1343'

Penny Upton

'The apparent transformation from a two-field to a three-field system at Gaydon, Warwickshire'

Peter Warner

'The fishing hamlet of Walberswick, Suffolk'

15.50 Tea

16.20 Mike Thornton

'Lord's man or community servant? The village hayward in 15th century Northamptonshire'

Alan Fox

'Geographical variation in probate inventories of the East Midlands'.

Jem Harrison

'Landscape, work and people; the impact of the railway around Highbridge'

17.20 Summing up

17.30 Drinks

18.30 Close

Cost of conference £28 including lunch and drinks

✂-----

I/We will be attending the conference on 19 July and enclose a cheque for £28 per person

Name(s) .....

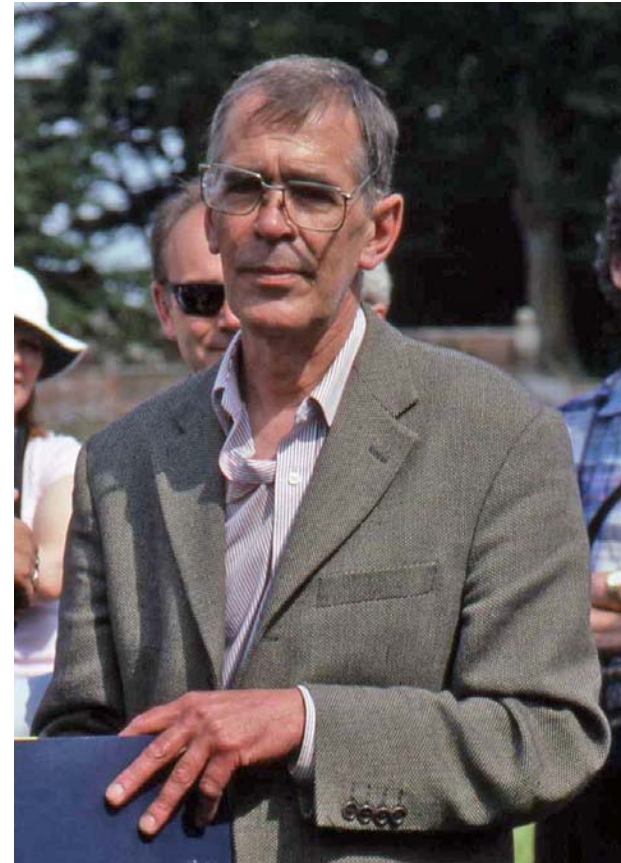

Address .....

.....

Phone/email .....

Please return with your cheque payable to Friends of the Centre for English Local History, 5 Salisbury Road, Leicester, LE 1 7QR by 15 June 2008.

Harold Fox, a life in landscape and local history, 1945-2007

19 July 2008

Education Library Hall, School of Education,
University Road, Leicester