

The document "Code of practice for system and network administrators" has been removed.

For information about policy relating to how the University may monitor usage of its IT systems and the circumstances in which it may access user information on its systems and networks that is normally private please refer to the University information security policy document "Institutional IT Usage Monitoring and Access (ISP-I6)" on page:

<http://www2.le.ac.uk/offices/itservices/resources/cis/iso/Policy-Documents>.