

To mark the publication of the Royal Irish Academy's Irish Historic Towns Atlas, no. 21 Limerick by Eamon O'Flaherty, a programme of events has been organised for the spring of 2010 examining varying aspects of Limerick's urban and topographical history. This programme has been arranged in collaboration with the Friends of the Hunt Museum, the Thomond Archaeological Society and the Limerick Chapter of the Irish Georgian Society.

Irish Historic Towns Atlas, no. 21 Limerick
by Eamon O'Flaherty will be available in bookshops from 6 February.

LECTURES AND EVENTS • SPRING 2010

11 FEBRUARY 2010 HUNT MUSEUM GALLERY, 1 PM — Eamon O'Flaherty (UCD) • 'Limerick's urban development: from Viking to modern times'

12 FEBRUARY ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL, 12 NOON — Julia Balla (UL) • 'Visitors' impressions of the cathedral in times past; or St Mary's Cathedral as seen by visitors in past times'

13 FEBRUARY 2010, HUNT MUSEUM, 2.30 PM — Liam Irwin (MIC) • Public walking tour of Georgian Limerick

22 MARCH 2010 THOMOND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY, MARY IMMACULATE COLLEGE, 8 PM — David Fleming (UL) • 'Limerick paupers: poor relief in eighteenth-century Limerick'

21 APRIL 2010, LIMERICK CHAPTER OF THE IRISH GEORGIAN SOCIETY, NO. 1 PERY SQUARE, 8 PM — John Logan (UL) • 'Eyres, Colles and Sauthier: mapping Limerick 1752 to 1786'

5 MAY 2010 HUNT MUSEUM 1 PM —
Liam Irwin (MIC) • 'Maps as a source for the sieges of Limerick'

MAPPING LIMERICK'S URBAN HISTORY

