Call for nominations - 2010 IPHS book prizes

At the 2010 IPHS conference in Istanbul two prizes will be awarded: The two most innovative books in planning history written in English and based on original new research. Books must have been published in the previous two calendar years (2008-2009). Books may be written individually or joint-authored. Anthologies and edited works are also welcome, but reprints and "readers" are ineligible.

The prize for each award is $ 250,-. The prizes will be awarded at the 14th IPHS conference in Istanbul in July 2010. Winners will be informed in January 2010 to facilitate participation at the conference. Nominations are invited from scholars and publishers.

Nominations will comprise a 400 word statement, a short CV of the author(s), and 5 copies of the nominated book. (These materials will not be returned). The deadline for receipt of submissions for the next prize is 31 November 2009.

Nomination materials should be sent (if possible earlier) to: Prof. Dr. Dirk Schubert, HafenCity University, 22085 Hamburg, Winterhuder Weg 31, Germany.

Further information about the prize can be obtained from Dirk Schubert (Tel. +49-40-428274513, E-mail: dirk.schubert@hcu-hamburg.de).

Members of the book prize committee are: Helen Meller (University of Nottingham, England), Nihal Perera (Ball State University Muncie, USA), José Luis Sainz Guerra (Universidad De Valladolid, Spain)
